State and District Conventions

Republican Party of Kentucky

STATE AND DISTRICT CONVENTION CALLS

In accordance with the Rules of the Republican Party of Kentucky, the Executive Committee of the Republican State Central Committee (RSCC) now directs that a State Convention of delegated representatives of the Republican Party of Kentucky be held in the city of Somerset at the Center for Rural Development 2:00 o'clock PM (EDT) on Saturday, May 18, 2024, for the following purposes: (a) electing 25 Delegates and 25 Alternate Delegates from the State-At-Large to the National Convention of the Republican Party to be held in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, July 15, 2024 thru July 18, 2024; and (b) electing two (2) Presidential Electors from the State-At-Large.

The Delegates and Alternates to the District and State Conventions shall be elected by County Mass Meetings to be held on the dates and times contained herein.

In those Counties, Precincts and Districts which are divided between two Congressional Districts, the State Central Committee shall stipulate the number of Delegates and Alternates to be chosen for each Congressional District from each portion of the divided Counties, Precincts or Districts. In those Counties, Precincts or Districts so divided between Congressional Districts, only those citizens whose voting residence is within a given Congressional District may vote for or serve as a Delegate or Alternate from that Congressional District.

The County Committee of each County is encouraged to provide widespread and timely advertisements of such County Mass Meeting. In said County Mass Meeting the viva-voce or the ballot form of voting may be used.

The Republican Congressional District Committee in each Congressional District, pursuant to Kentucky Party Rules and to the Call of the Republican National Committee, shall conduct a Congressional District Convention in such District, to elect one (1) Presidential Elector, three (3) Delegates and three (3) Alternates to the National Convention. The District Convention will also elect four persons to serve at the State Convention, one for each of the four State Convention Committees. Delegates to the District and State Conventions have been allocated based on one delegate for each 1200 votes cast for the Republican nominee in the most recent U.S. Senate election; the resulting number of Delegates for each County is shown on the attached list. No County shall have fewer than three (3) delegates.

TEMPORARY 2024 REPUBLICAN DISTRICT CONVENTION RULES

1. FLOOR PRIVILEGES.

Designated seating shall be provided by the convention committee for delegates, alternates, and guests, and such other sections as deemed necessary either by the Congressional District Committee or the convention committee.

Access to the floor shall be limited to only accredited delegates, alternates serving in the capacity of delegates, elected or appointed officials of the convention, elected Republican Officials, and such members of the press and other persons as designated by the Congressional District Committee.

Registration shall be as provided by the Convention Committee under the authority of the Congressional District Committee. No person may be certified as a voting delegate or alternate who has not paid the Convention Registration Fee, if any.

2. ALTERNATES.

Each county delegation may designate so many of their accredited alternates as necessary to act for absent delegates, but not more than necessary to reach the total number of delegates to which their county is entitled as accredited by the credentials committee.

3. RECOGNITION.

Recognition by the chair shall be accorded to any delegate or alternate serving as a delegate who shall show their desire to be recognized by waving at the chair or giving other suitable signal. Upon recognition, the speaker shall state his or hers name and county.

4. LIMIT ON DEBATE.

Debate shall be limited to a maximum of three minutes per person per item subject to debate. The Chairman may grant reasonable extensions to this limit. The Chairman shall, as much as possible, first accord recognition to delegates who have not previously debated.

5. UNIT RULE.

Unit rule (block voting) shall not be used.

6. TEMPORARY CONVENTION OFFICERS AND NOMINATION.

The Temporary Chairman of the Convention shall be the District Chairman, or in his or her absence, the District Vice Chairman. In the event neither person is in attendance, the District Chairman may appoint the Temporary Chairman, or if no such appointment has been made, the delegates shall elect a Temporary Chairman. The District Secretary shall serve as the Temporary Secretary, or in his or her absence the Temporary Chairman shall appoint a Temporary Secretary. Nominations shall be made as provided in the rules of the Republican Party of Kentucky.

7. VOTING.

No county delegation may cast more votes than it has duly certified delegates or alternates serving in the capacity of delegates present and voting on the floor up to the total number of delegates authorized for that county.

8. METHOD OF VOTING.

All voting shall be by voice unless otherwise provided in these rules, or upon direction of the chair if the chair be in doubt, or upon request of three county delegation chairmen (or Legislative District chairmen if in the Third Congressional District).

9. ROLL CALL VOTE.

On all roll call votes, the Secretary shall call the roll alphabetically by county. Once the call of the roll is commenced, no other business will be in order except a Point of Order concerning the call or a demand for a poll pursuant to Rule 11 of these rules.

10. ANNOUNCING VOTES.

Each county delegation chairman shall poll his or her delegation and as his or her county is called shall announce the results, yeas, nays, and abstentions, or make other such responses as provided by these rules. A county may pass once.

11. POLLING A DELEGATION.

Only a member of a delegation may demand a poll of that delegation unless the chair be informed by the sergeant of arms or his or hers assistant that a delegation is casting more votes than are represented by delegates or acting delegates on the floor with that delegation. In the event that the delegation is to be polled, the name of each voting member of that delegation will be called by the secretary.

12. VOTE CHANGE.

After the call of the roll and re-call of passed delegations, county chairmen will be recognized to announce changes in the votes reported for their county.

13. OTHER OFFICIALS.

The Temporary Chairman may appoint, in addition to any other appointments provided in the rules of the Republican Party of Kentucky, a temporary parliamentarian, sergeant at arms, and assistants. He or She shall also appoint a temporary chairman for each convention committee to serve until the committee elects its own permanent chairman. The permanent Chairman may appoint a different parliamentarian, sergeant at arms, and assistants.

14. APPEALS.

Appeals of rulings of the chair must be seconded by at least two delegates from different counties (except in the case of the 3rd Congressional District, where the delegates must be from two different Legislative Districts). Upon an appeal being taken, the chairman will vacate the chair, and the parliamentarian will immediately put the question, "Shall the ruling of the chair be sustained?" A majority of yeas shall sustain the chair, a majority of nays overrule him. No other business will be in order while an appeal is pending. Immediately after such a vote, the Chairman shall resume the chair.

15. SUPPLEMENTAL RULES.

These rules will be supplemented, where not in conflict, by the rules of the Republican Party of Kentucky; and where not in conflict with these rules or the rules of the Republican Party of Kentucky by Roberts Rules of Order, newly revised.

16. ORDER OF BUSINESS.

The order of business of this convention shall be:

- (a) The Call to Order
- (b) Announcement of Temporary Officers (or, in the event that the Chairman and Vice Chairman of the District are both absent, and the District Chairman has not appointed someone as Temporary Chairman, the election of a Temporary Chairman)
- (c) Report of the Credentials Committee
- (d) Report of the Rules Committee
- (e) Report of the Committee on Permanent Organization
- (f) Report of the Nominations Committee
- (g) Announcements
- (h) Adjournment sine die

MINUTES OF CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT CONVENTION

A Republican District Convention was held for the _____ Congressional District at the _____(place) in _____(city), Kentucky at _____ (time) on _____(date), pursuant to the Convention Call issued by the Republican Party of Kentucky.

The meeting was called to order by the Temporary Chairman (who shall be the District Chairman or in his or hers absence the Vice Chairman, or a person appointed by the District Chairman (Rule 7.03)) _____(name), who announced that the purposes of the meeting were:

- (a) to elect three (3) Delegates and three (3) Alternates to the Republican National Convention (Rule 6.07); (in case a chosen Delegate was unable to serve, Alternates would replace such Delegates in the order in which the Alternates' names were shown on the list adopted by this District Convention).
- (b) to elect one (1) Presidential Elector (Rule 7.03);

The various District Convention Committees, with members representing each County in the District as chosen by their respective County Mass Meetings and (2) members appointed by the District Chairman, were then directed to meet and report back later in the Convention.

The Temporary Chairman then called for the report of the Credentials Committee, and that report was received and approved. The Rules Committee then reported on recommended Rules to be followed during the District Convention, and such Rules were duly adopted. The Committee on Permanent Organization then reported their recommendations for persons to serve as Permanent Chairman and Permanent Secretary for the District Convention. The report was acted upon, and _____ was elected Permanent Chairman and _____ was elected Permanent Secretary of the Convention, and they immediately assumed their duties.

The Permanent Chairman called for the report of the Nominations Committee.

The Convention then took action on the Nominations Committee's slate for Delegates and Alternates to the Republican National Convention. The following slate was eventually approved by the District Convention:

TEMPORARY 2024 REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION RULES

1. FLOOR PRIVILEGES

Designated seating shall be provided by the convention committee for delegates, alternates, guests, and such other sections as deemed necessary either by the Republican Party of Kentucky State Central Committee or the Convention Committee.

Access to the floor shall be limited to only accredited delegates, alternates serving in the capacity of delegates, elected or appointed officials of the convention, elected Republican Officials, and such members of the press or other persons as designated by the Republican Party of Kentucky State Central Committee.

Only those persons having delegate badges or such other identification and/or designation as approved by the convention committee shall be permitted on the floor.

Registration shall be as provided by the convention committee under the authority of the Republican Party of Kentucky State Central Committee.

2. ALTERNATES

Each county delegation may designate so many of their alternates as necessary to act for absent delegates, but not more than necessary to reach the total number of delegates to which their county is entitled as accredited by the credentials committee.

3. RECOGNITION

Recognition by the chair shall be accorded to any delegate or alternate serving as a delegate who shall show their desire to be recognized by approaching any of the microphones and signal by waving at the chair. Upon recognition, the speaker shall state their name and county.

4. LIMIT ON DEBATE

Debate shall be limited to a maximum of three minutes per person per item subject to debate. The chair may grant reasonable extensions to this limit. The chair shall, as much as possible, first accord recognition to delegates who have not previously debated.

5. UNIT RULE

Unit rule (block voting) shall not be used.

6. NOMINATION

Nominations shall be made as provided in the rules of the Republican Party of Kentucky.

7. VOTING

No county delegation may cast more votes than it has duly certified delegates or alternates serving in the capacity of delegates present and voting on the floor up to the total number of voters authorized for that county.

8. METHOD OF VOTING

All voting shall be by voice unless otherwise provided in these rules, or upon direction of the chair if the chair be in doubt, or upon motion seconded by two county delegation chairmen from each congressional district, except in the 3rd Congressional District where the signature of two Legislative District delegation chairmen shall be required.

9. ROLL CALL VOTE

On all roll call votes, the secretary of the convention shall call each congressional district beginning with District 1 alphabetically by county within that District. Once the call of the roll is commenced, no other business will be in order except a Point of Order concerning the call or a demand for a poll pursuant to Rule 11 of these rules.

10. ANNOUNCING VOTES

Each county delegation chairman shall poll his or her delegation and as his or her county is called shall announce the results, yeas, nays, abstentions or make other such responses as provided by these rules. A county may pass once.

11. POLLING A DELEGATION

Only a member of a delegation may demand a poll of that delegation unless the chair be informed by the sergeant of arms or his or hers assistant that a delegation is casting more votes than are represented by delegates or acting delegates on the floor with that delegation. In such event the name of each voting member of that delegation will be called by the secretary.

12. VOTE CHANGE

After the call of the roll and re-call of passed delegations, county chairmen will be recognized to announce changes in their vote.

13. TELLERS

The assistant secretary and vice-chairman of the state convention elected by each district convention shall act as the tellers. All election results shall be certified by the convention chairman and secretary and in the case of particular forms being required by law or rules of the national or state party, in that form.

15. OTHER OFFICIALS

The Temporary Chairman shall appoint in addition to any other appointments provided in the rules of the Republican Party of Kentucky a temporary parliamentarian, sergeant at arms, and assistants. He or She shall also appoint a temporary chairman for each convention committee until the committee elects its own permanent chairman. The Permanent Chairman may appoint a different parliamentarian, sergeant at arms, or assistants.

16. APPEALS

Any appeal of a ruling of the chair must be seconded by at least two delegates from different counties. Upon an appeal being taken, the chairman will vacate the chair, and the parliamentarian will immediately put the question, "Shall the ruling of the chair be sustained" A majority of yeas shall sustain the chair, a majority of nays overrule him. No other business will be in order while an appeal is pending. Immediately after such a vote, the Chairman shall resume the chair.

17. SUPPLEMENTAL RULES

These rules will be supplemented where not in conflict by the rules of the Republican Party of Kentucky and where not in conflict with these rules or the rules of the Republican Party of Kentucky by Roberts Rules of Order, newly revised.

18. ORDER OF BUSINESS

The order of business of this convention shall be:

- (a) The Call to Order

- (b) Announcement of the Temporary Officers
- (c) Report of the Committee on Credentials
- (d) Report of the Rules Committee
- (e) Report of the Committee on Permanent Organization
- (f) Report of the Committee on Nominations
- (g) Announcements
- (h) Adjournment sine die

VACANCIES IN THE POSITION OF ALTERNATE DELEGATE TO THE REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION

In the event of a vacancy in the position of Alternate Delegate at-large to a Republican National Convention, the position will be filled by the Executive Committee of the RSCC acting as a State Convention and be certified as necessary to the Secretary of the Republican National Committee. If there is insufficient time in which to follow the aforesaid procedure in the discretion of the State Chairman, then at the call of the State Chairman a committee consisting of the State Chairman, National Committeeman and National Committeewoman will fill the vacancy and certify as necessary the new Alternate Delegate at-large. The new Alternate Delegate at-large will be added as the last name on the list of Alternate Delegates at-large.

In the event of a vacancy in the position of Alternate Delegate to the National Convention representing a Congressional District, the position will be filled by the District Committee acting as a District Convention and be certified as necessary to the Secretary of the Republican National Committee. However, if the vacancy occurs within four (4) days of the Republican National Convention, the position will be filled by a committee consisting of the State Chairman, National Committeeman and National Committeewoman, and the new Alternate Delegate will be certified as necessary. The new Alternate Delegate will be added as the last name on the list of Alternate Delegates from that Congressional District.

In the event a vacancy arises among the Delegates to the National Convention, or an absence among the Delegates occurs during a session of the Convention, the selection of the appropriate Alternate Delegate to serve in the place of said Delegate shall be made as follows: If the Delegate was one of the Delegates at-large, then the person whose name appears first on the list of Alternate Delegates as elected by the State Convention shall fill the vacancy, and so on down the list of Alternate Delegates at-large in order to fill other vacancies as they may arise among the Delegates at-large. If the vacancy arises among the Delegates selected by a Congressional District Convention, then the person whose name appears first on the list of Alternate Delegates as elected by that same District Convention will fill the vacancy, and so on down the list of Alternate Delegates in order to fill other vacancies as they may arise among Delegates elected by that particular District Convention. In the event there is an insufficient number of Alternate Delegates to fill the vacancies of Delegate at-large or District Delegate, the vacancies shall be filled by the next available Alternate Delegate at-large, and if there is an insufficient number of Alternate Delegates at-large, then by the Alternate Delegates from the First Congressional District in the order in which they appear on the list submitted by the District Convention, then continuing through the Alternate Delegates from the other Congressional Districts in numerical order.
